7. Naval Vessels and Military Facilities [redacted] the Soviets have complete control of the river's mouth at Swinemunde. 25X1

[redacted] At designator A [redacted] two Soviet destroyers berthed. Destroyers had two turrets fore and two aft, torpedo tubes, and one stack. [redacted] their good paint job and condition. Naval vessels were painted light grey.

[redacted] approximately 60 PT boats. All the ships were berthed [redacted] a naval station of some sort at designator C. In that area loud speakers were blaring music. Many of the sailors were on shore doing calisthenics or playing soccer. From the shore line a tree-filled park area extended back 300-400 feet. Then there were nine or 10 two or three story buildings painted grey or yellow. [redacted] in the area designated D there was some kind of military activity. [redacted] a few military trucks from time to time and occasional guards half hidden along the shore. 25X1
